Employee or worker? Which one are you?

A course for all employees who want to be effective workers as opposed to those who want a job. Helps develop you to your full potential and be valuable assets to your employers. A great initiator for new employees in the workforce or new in your job. An eye opener or refresher to those who need a second wind or a boost. Covers a lot of basics and common sense things that are not always so basic to a lot of people.

"Fred is a dynamic, pragmatic speaker who is able to engage his trainees and challenge them to improve."
