

bodrum information

Bodrum could be the Turkish gates into the entire world tourism, a truly unique place. From time immemorial, different races with different cultures, religious and languages lived here - sometimes, their places of living were next to each other. The old saying "Live and let others live" is typical for the citizens of Bodrum utilizing their tolerance, a wider look on life and warm hospitality. 3d slots

In ancient times Bodrum was called the Halicarnassus that has been changed into the capital of Caria by the king Mausollos. When he died, his wife Artemisia II hired Greek architects to create her husband's mausoleum here. Created in 4th century BC, it absolutely was on the list of Ancient World's seven wonders - unfortunately, it wasn't preserved till our days. The town was Herodotus' motherland, known across the world as "the daddy of history ". The Rhodes Knights built the Castle of St Peter within 1402 - the castle and the city became called "Petronium" since then. Then, in 1522, sultan Suleiman the Magnificent made the city a the key Ottomans' empire and it absolutely was since those times that the city got its present-day name. Starting from the center 1980-s, Bodrum is a huge significant Turkish tourist resort.

The city's charm is well known all over the earth and because of it Bodrum attracts an excellent quantity of travelers, divers and nature lovers. An impressive medieval castle built by the Rhodes' knights guards the entrance to the breath-taking blue Bodrum gulf where in actuality the Mediterranean sea meets the Aegean sea. The Bodrum's castle, or the Medieval Castle of St Peter is an excellent exemplary case of the 15th century crusader's architecture - within our days, it's the Museum of Underwater Archaeology. Not definitely not the city you are able to swim in absolutely clean, calm and warm seawaters. Divers will find the investigation of many reefs and Bodrum's caves especially interesting. Bodrum's reputation while the centre for sailing sports dates back once again to ancient times and nowadays craftsmen build traditional yachts which are ideal for excursions and take part in annual yacht regattas. favorite casino slots

Bodrum in addition has won the trustworthiness of the centre for Turkish arts which consists of lively, friendly and bohemian atmosphere and also a great amount of small galleries. Local artistic Bohemia leads an informal life-style at daytime and gets lots of entertainment in the evening. Bodrum evenings are suitable for a rest in restaurants, a supper consisting of delicious seafood, whilst the city itself is high in excellent nightclubs, some cabarets and wonderful discos.

The magnificent Bodrum peninsula which consists of charming villages and small hotels situated in silent bays attracts people who prefer calm and relaxing atmosphere. Like, marvelous sandy beaches are available in the southern coast. Bodrum is an excellent starting point to start your trip on the Carian coastline which consists of sandy beaches, rocky bays and small fiords.