Introduction to Khaoyai

Khaoyai is one of the most visited and third largest National parks of Thailand. It is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is spread across 4 provinces such as Nakhon Nayok in the east, Prachinburi in the east, and Saraburi in the west. The highest peak of Khaoyai is around 1351 meters above the sea level. Khaoyai is a fabulous gateway destination only around 3 hours drive away from the Bangkok city.

Khaoyai is a beautiful mountainous landscape, with valleys all across that are fertile, with pounding waterfalls, lush in abundance and a rich biodiversity.

Real Estate Ventures

Khaoyai's property is quite unique and there is a high demand of it from everyone around the world. Many people want to buy property at Khaoyai because it is close to the Bangkok city which in itself is a great advantage. For this reason property rates are also high in Khaoyai. There are a number of real estate ventures that have come on board in Khaoyai. One such property project in Khaoyai is the Bonaza Khaoyai Group. The group has a wide expansion in the hospitality sector and majorly plans to focus on the middle- to -upper- income- market, has also announced a growth of 975 million residential projects and a 12 acre plat in Khaoyai.

It's true that there is a big demand for vacation homes at Khaoyai which continues to rise only because of its proximity to the city Bangkok. the company also intends to develop a business in hospitality here at Khaoyai. They wish to commence 2 separate businesses- one with a lake view and the other includes the garden area. The company has intended to start with a few other projects after a few months' time.

There are so many other projects that are currently running at Khaoyai. Khaoyai is a beautiful place to be. More and more travelers are interested to view the place while they are travelling to Thailand or even when they reach Bangkok.
