

Edwin Black Exposes Zionist Link to Third Reich

Edwin Black demonstrates that the National Socialist Government of Germany was sympathetic to the aspirations of the Jewish people to have a homeland of their own, and that Hitler laid the foundations of the future Zionist state by encouraging the emigration of German Jews to Palestine. The financial clauses of the transfer agreement generated the funds that led to the creation of the basic infrastructure of Jewish Palestine.

Editorial Reviews

AN INCREDIBLE JOB. A passionate book certain to be controversial...(an) incredible job. --
Chicago Sun-Times

SPELLBINDING. A spellbinding, exciting book exploring new dramatic facets. Despite the voluminous literature on the Third Reich, Mandate Palestine, modern Zionism and the Holocaust, this subject had not been previously explored. It adds a significant new dimension to our understanding of this critical period.-- Sybil Milton, Simon Wiesenthal Center

EXHAUSTIVE AND COMPELLING. Black has authored an exhaustive, compelling, well-written and edited work. It is historical journalism at its best. --Alexander Zvielli, Jerusalem Post

METICULOUS, ESSENTIAL. Black...has meticulously documented this obscure but important slice of world history...makes an essential contribution to an understanding of Israeli politics and the strife in the Middle East today. --Gladwyn Hill, Los Angeles Times

OVERWHELMING AND COHESIVE. Edwin Black's research is striking in its dimension and scope. The vast uncovering of source material and its extensive use are almost overwhelming. He succeeds in crystallizing the various aspects of an almost worldwide problem into fluid and cohesive analysis. --Yoav Gelber, Yad Vashem Israel Holocaust Memorial

Zionist Banner Decreed Official Jewish Flag by Nazis January 2, 1936

BERLIN (Dec. 31)

The Nazi authorities today decreed that the Zionist blue-white banner is the official Jewish flag and may be displayed under protection of the police throughout Germany.

The decree is based on the flag law passed by the Reichstag at the Nuremberg session at which the anti-Jewish legislation was adopted. Jews are expressly forbidden by this law to display the German flag.

"It is up to the Jewish nation," the decree states, "to decide for itself which are to be the colors of the Jewish national flag, but until then the Zionists' blue-white flag, together with the symbols of all the different Zionist groups, is valid in the Reich as the Jewish flag and as such will be enjoying State protection."
