

The real price of the newest generation of the smartphone in present market is somewhere around $600. It's quite obvious that with continuous usage of any electronic devices like iPhones; they may undergo some damage, and hence many companies have emerged in the market which provides iPhone repair. One of the leading companies in Houston is ipad repair houston . When you buy a phone on contract, you are not actually paying for the full phone. You are just paying a fraction of the price because you are going to be with your provider for at least two years. When you have still not paid your entire money and the cell phone has undergone damage, on an average, to repair your device at the most it would cost you around $300. In some cases, $200 is the max price you pay for a repair; most repairs cost under $100. So, say you have an iPhone 7 64GB and it costs you $70 to repair. Once it's repaired, you can sell the phone for a cool $180 and you still get your upgrade.

Here are the average prices of common smartphone repairs.

Cracked Screen:

Manufacturer (e.g. Apple or Samsung) repair price $200

Off warranty repair price: $40-$170

Battery replacement:

Manufacturer (e.g. Apple or Samsung) repair price $150

Off warranty repair price: $25- $65

Water damage:

Manufacturer (e.g. Apple or Samsung) repair price $100

Off warranty repair price: $60 – $100

With the increasing usages and demands of iPhones seen in public, Apple Company has launched a new series of iPhones with more features and latest technology. More features make the iPhones much more complex, and hence iPhones are contributing and making life easy. The company is well grown and developed and provides fast and standard service. Quality service and warranty on their services are what sets them apart from the huge crowd of repairing centers worldwide.