

For more Bollywood News

Hrithik Roshan and Saba Azad have been close friends for a while now but not many people knew of it.

Hrithik Roshan is without a doubt one of the most-followed big names of Bollywood not only for his outstanding work as an entertainer yet in addition for his dapper looks and body. The entertainer has been in the news since the time he was spotted holding Saba Azad's hand as of late while leaving an eatery in Mumbai. The most recent reports recommend that the two celebs have shared a nearby bond for some time now and have figured out how to get their relationship far from the spotlight this time. Keep reading for more bollywood news.

For the unversed, Hrithik was hitched to Sussanne Khan for a few years prior to tapping out in 2014. The two or three has kept a friendly relationship from that point forward as they co-parent their two children and even offer strong directives for one another through web-based media. As it has been some time since their separation, Hrithik's fans appear to be thrilled that the entertainer is dating somebody after so long.

As indicated by the latest report by Mid-Day, Hrithik Roshan and Saba Azad have been dear companions for some time now however relatively few individuals knew about it. Indeed, even the ones that knew about their maturing relationship were obviously amazed with the viral pap video where the two were clasping hands.

A source near the improvement let the distribution know that Hrithik and Saba even went on a get-away together to Goa last month. "Their kinship has bloomed into something truly exceptional.

On the work front, Hrithik Roshan will before long be seen assuming a critical part in the Hindi revamp of Vikram Vedha. He will likewise be seen sharing screen space with Deepika Padukone in his next film, named Fighter. The film has as of now been making a great deal of buzz among the crowd. Stay tuned to Koimoi.