Understanding SEBI Grade A

The SEBI Grade A exam is conducted to recruit officers in various streams such as General, Legal, Information Technology, Engineering, Research, and Official Language. The selection process is rigorous, consisting of three phases: Phase 1, Phase 2, and an Interview.

SEBI Grade A Exam Pattern:

Phase 1:

This is an online screening examination consisting of two papers.

Paper 1: Sebi Grade A MCQ Course Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs) on General Awareness, English Language, Quantitative Aptitude, and Test of Reasoning.

Paper 2: MCQs based on the specialized stream chosen by the candidate.

Phase 2:

This is an online examination consisting of two papers.

Paper 1: English (Descriptive Test).

Paper 2: Stream-specific subjects.

Interview:

Candidates who clear Phase 2 are called for an interview.

SEBI Grade A Syllabus:

The syllabus for SEBI Grade A varies based on the stream you choose. However, some common subjects across all streams include:
