

5 DJs in Delhi who can set the mood for a wedding party

One of the things that make a wedding happening and full of energy is a classy DJ. Having a DJ at your wedding is as important as to have delicious food. DJ has always been a very important part of the arrangements that done while planning the wedding. The search for a perfect, talented as well as a professional DJ begins months before the wedding. There are many sources through which you can book DJ, videographer, photographer and other artists that are important for you to have at your wedding. Several online websites and portals that help you to book several artists in an easy and hassle-free procedure. StarClinch is one of my favourite online portal that provides these services.

In this blog, I will be writing about the top five DJs that you can hire/book from StarClinch.

Anubhav Kardam: Without a doubt, Anubhav Kardam is the best DJ in Delhi that you can book for your events like college fests, weddings, private parties, and several others. This very talented and highly professional DJ came into the limelight in the year 2016 when he got the opportunity to play at Electronica Event at IIT Delhi's cultural fest Rendezvous. His mashup for Hardwell and Sidney Samson got so popular that it crossed fourteen thousand plays and more than a hundred downloads in a short span of 24 hours. Anubhav is a DJ, a designer and a producer who gets his inspiration from Martin Garrix.
