

What is a logistic company? What Do They Do?

The movement of materials from their origin to the consumer is called logistics. The complete process from the movement of materials or services provided comes under logistics.

Logistics in India deal in liquid items, food items, different materials, and animals.