

Kim Yeonkyung, who delivered a heart full of cuteness to her best friend Yang Hyojin

"Hyojin, I love you." Kim Yeonkyung, who delivered a heart full of cuteness to her best friend Yang Hyojin, said, "I won the match, but the friendship remains the same."

On the 18th, Heungkuk Life won the match between Heungkuk Life Insurance and Hyundai Engineering & Construction in the V League Women's Division at Suwon Indoor Gymnasium after a full set battle. 스포츠투투

Heungkuk Life Insurance, which marked the opening game against Korea Expressway Corporation with a shutout victory, won the opening game against Hyundai Engineering & Construction and won its second consecutive game.

The meeting of best friends who caught the attention of fans could be seen after the game. Kim Yeon-kyung, who finished the interview with Soo-hoon, approached her colleagues who were stretching the finish line and shook hands to share the joy of victory. Kim Yeon-kyung, who was stretching, found Yang Hyo-jin heading for the locker, and the two players encouraged each other by shaking hands and hugging each other.

It wasn't just two this time. Kim Soo-ji, who moved to Heungkuk Life Insurance this season, also approached Yang Hyo-jin and greeted him. Kim Soo-ji, who is also best friend with them, moved to FA ahead of this season and wore a pink uniform of Heungkuk Life with Kim Yeon-kyung. Kim Soo-ji was at Heungkuk Life from 2014 to 2017, but Kim Yeon-kyung played in the overseas league, so there was no chance to work together.

There seemed to be a lot to talk about after the first face-off of the season. The three players, who had been talking for a long time with a welcome smile and friendly appearance, said goodbye, promising next time, and Kim Yeon-kyung showed off her extraordinary affection by giving a heart with a wink to Yang Hyo-jin, who was moving away.
