

Your Quick Guide To Golfing Breaks In Fuengirola - Simply-Shuttles

If you could imagine one of the best places in the world as a golf player, where would it be? For many golf enthusiasts, Fuengirola in Spain is the place.

Located between Málaga and Marbella, Fuengirola is a key destination within the 'Costa del Golf' – the Costa del Sol – because of the abundance of beautiful courses here.

A golfing holiday paradise

Whether you are traveling alone or in a group, the Fuengirola area has many stunning places to stay and enjoy the scenery, as well as the golf.

There are miles of sandy beaches for you to relax between rounds, and there is always the option of traveling into Málaga or Marbella for sightseeing or entertainment.

Getting around is also easy, as there are specialists in Fuengirola golf transfers – such as ourselves here at Simply Shuttles – that can take you from the airport to your hotel, and then take you to your golf course of choice every day. They can even pick you up afterward, which is ideal if you have a lot of luggage to carry around.

Challenging golf courses

No matter if you are a seasoned pro or an enthusiastic beginner, there are courses in and around the Fuengirola area that will suit you.

Many of them have been designed by world-famous course designers such as Seve Ballesteros, who designed Alhaurin Golf Course.

One of the most popular destinations is La Cala, which boasts three golf courses plus a par-3 practice course and the David Leadbetter Academy.

You will find the America Course which has varying terrain, together with the Asia and Europa courses, which offer different challenges.

Climate

Spain has a reliably warm and sunny climate, and Fuengirola is no different. You can enjoy temperatures in August of around 24 degrees Celsius, which is perfect for long days on the golf course.

The gorgeous weather also makes it possible to come to Fuengirola at any time of year without having to worry.
