

Data Collection Methods and Tools Spade Survey

Data collection is a systematic process of gathering and analyzing specific information to obtain solutions to relevant questions and evaluate the benefits. It focuses on teaching everything there is to understand about just a particular subject. Information is collected in preparation to be submitted to hypothesis testing used to try and understand a phenomenon.

