

Fatehpur Sikri - Mughal Emperor Akbar - UPSC with Nikhil - UPSC Classes Nagpur

Fatehpur Sikri, placed close to Agra, is a fortified town that served because of the Mughal Empire's capital withinside the overdue sixteenth century. However, the town become handiest used for 14 years earlier than being deserted absolutely across the flip of the century.

This ancient town is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of all Agra's maximum famous vacationer destinations. HISTORY Fatehpur Sikri, based in 1571 through Mughal Emperor Akbar, is taken into consideration for his crowning architectural achievement.

Part of the town's call comes from a village referred to as Sikri, which as soon as stood on the precise spot wherein it become built. According to legend, Akbar visited this village and sought a recommendation from a Sufi saint named Shaikh Salim Chishti. The saint anticipated his heir's birth, and whilst the prophecy got here true, Akbar started constructing his capital withinside the village.

FATEHPUR SIKRI Fatehpur Sikri served because of the Mughal Empire's capital from 1571 to 1585. When Akbar lower back from his Gujarat marketing campaign successful in 1573, the town become renamed Fatehpur Sikri, or the City of Victory, to commemorate the victory.

He deserted the town whilst he moved to Punjab in 1585 to combat in his subsequent army marketing campaign. The town is notion to were deserted for 2 essential reasons: a loss of water and unrest withinside the country's north-western region. Later, Akbar moved his empire's capital to Lahore, then to Agra, and Fatehpur Sikri become absolutely deserted through 1610. When the colonial rulers took manage of Agra in 1803, they hooked up an administrative center right here that lasted till 1850. The Marquess of Hastings ordered the monuments at Fatehpur Sikri to be repaired in 1815.

If you want to know more about Fatehpur Sikri then click on this link... <https://bit.ly/3GOj9hb>