What color is suitable for men's business shoes

First of all, business leather shoes generally choose two colors of black and brown. wholesale men boots .Don't have any colors like casual leather shoes, which is not serious and formal.

Secondly, a man who needs to wear a suit for formal occasions should have at least two pairs of black dress shoes. This can depend on the occasion you are attending. Black leather shoes complement any dark suit and make you feel comfortable on many occasions.

In addition, there should be a pair of brown formal leather shoes, which not only match with light-colored suits, but also are active with casual clothes.
