

Karnataka Hijab Row: Hema Malini & Javed Akhtar React To The Controversy

For more Latest Bollywood News

After Richa Chadha, Kamal Haasan and others, now actress-turned-politician Hema Malini and veteran lyricist Javed Akhtar have reacted to the Hijab controversy.

Karnataka government's restriction on the hijab in schools and universities has brought about a ruckus by female understudies, who have been challenging Govt's choice. A contention emitted in the Udupi locale of Karnataka after understudies from Government Girls PU College were supposedly denied passage in view of their hijab. Since the time it started to stand out as truly newsworthy, it pulled in big names' solid responses. Keep reading for more latest bollywood news.

After Richa Chadha, Kamal Haasan and others, presently entertainer turned-legislator Hema Malini and veteran lyricist Javed Akhtar have responded to the Hijab debate. The veteran entertainer feels that one should regard a uniform as each school has one.

Hema Malini said, "Schools are for instruction and strict issues ought not be taken there. Each school has a uniform that ought to be regarded. You can wear anything you desire outside the school."

Some time back, Javed Akhtar took to Twitter to denounce the entertainer. In a progression of Tweet, "Mental fortitude of conviction, guts to face treachery n be counted are the characteristics that I generally appreciate. My heart is loaded up with adoration n pride for youthful Neha Singh Rathore who is intensely composing melodies against a wide range of constraint in our general public . More capacity to her!!" His next Tweet read, "I have never been agreeable to Hijab or Burqa. I actually stand by that and yet I have only profound hatred for these hordes of law breakers who are attempting to threaten a little gathering of young ladies and that too fruitlessly. Is this actually masculinity for them". What a pity"

Prior Richa Chadha had likewise responded to the contention and Tweeted, "Bring up your children better! A lot of revolting, quitters assaulting a solitary lady in a pack and feeling pleased with it? WHAT LOSERS! Despicable. They'll be jobless, more baffled and destitute in a couple of years. What helpless childhood! No compassion, no reclamation for them. I spit on your sort."

"What's going on in Karnataka is inciting distress. A strict toxin divider is being raised among the understudies who are not lying. What's going on in the adjoining state past the single divider ought not come to Tamil Nadu. It is the ideal opportunity for the dynamic powers to be more cautious," Kamal Haasan had tweeted. Stay tuned to Koimoi.