HR Leave Management Software
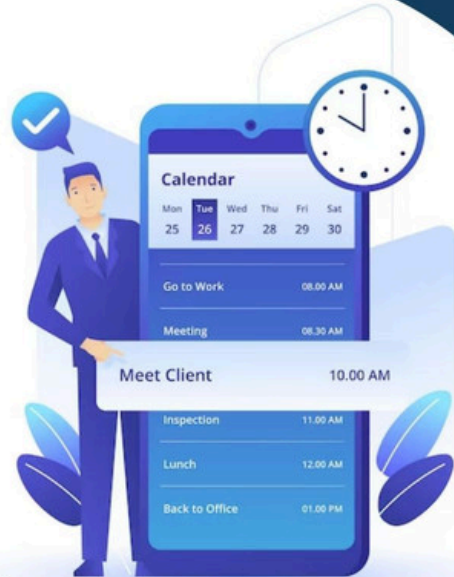

Leave management is the administration of employee leave, by following corporate policies, not just for statutory compliance but also for improved employee engagement, productivity, and employer branding.