Radiant Red Nails: Nails that are polished in vivid red will be a definite conversation starter. From the runways of Givenchy to the hectic sidewalks of New York City, notice how many hands are painted red this season. The color of love is a beautiful alternative to classic platinum or

French manicure: This trend will be the perfect complement for your holiday get-up this season. Wear an elegant green dress or soft pink sweater with black tights and tall black boots for a night out on the town.

Brown Tone: Brown tones are popping up all over the fashion circuit these days. The light, smoky brown tone is trending in stores this season and will look great with just about any outfit.

The New Glazed Donut: No, this is not a food trend. This manicure features a brown base with pink, sugar glaze nails and white dots on the ring finger. All nail colors are available but brown is best for this look!

Elegant Emerald: Elegant Emerald is another nail polish trend worth trying out if you're looking for something other than the same old yellow gold or pinkish red tones that have been popular for. With the warm and cool trends from last year a thing of the past, it is time to look at what you can achieve in the coming months.

Silver Chrome: In these winter months, it's important to keep your hands warm. These silver chrome nails will help keep you warm while still looking chic and stylish! The shine of silver chrome will make any outfit stand out in any situation!
