Robots Deaththon Gameplay

In this game there is a runner and a killer. The runner reaches the end when the killer tries to kill the runner before he reaches the end. Many runner stops obstacles and obstacles for each runner, like a standard runner game. The only purpose of the runner to reach the end of the track is to win this game.

This game was divided into 3 difficulties with different map locations. Simple, Medium and Hard Levels

Runners can collect coins during the game and after finishing they can take more bonus coins. There is another currency in this game named James. Both coins and gems are used to purchase game items such as 20% coin boost, 20% XP boost, 20% killer boost, and VIP access. Gems are a premium currency and can be purchased by real money / robins or by redeeming the code for a death-granted developer.

Besides the Robotine Death Penalty Code quoted above, you can also get gems / in-game items with your gown from your account.
