

The Benefits of Managed Learning Services and Vendor Consolidation

Managed Learning Services helps organizations drive their learning and development goals in the right direction through a vendor consolidated approach.

The Benefits of Managed Learning Services and Vendor Consolidation

Managed Learning Services provides end-to-end training services for your organization streamlining the entire process.

83%

of organizations would like to work with a single vendor for their training needs

Reduce Training Costs

A Managed Learning Services provider can help identify the most cost-effective approach for each project with access to tools to improve the cost and efficiency of training.

Hiring a managed services provider will help you cut costs by utilizing their access to tools, software and the knowledge needed to use them.

38% of companies plan on investing more in eLearning and another 37% plan on investing in new training tools and software.

Improves Organizational Efficiency

Managed learning service providers will help you align your training goals with your business objectives. This ensures that your training plan is effective and supports your organization's broader goals and overall mission.

Access to Subject Matter Experts

A Managed Learning Services provider has subject matter experts for every L&D subject as well as access to a wide range of tools and technology to help them develop training content. Effective training content is a high priority for many organizations.

Developing training content that is engaging and relevant in house can be challenging. An end to end service provider has the talent that is both knowledgeable and dedicated to creating engaging content.

36% of organizations plan on investing in training content

Frees up L&D Staff to Provide Support in Other Areas

Outsourcing to a Managed Learning Services provider gives you access to end to end L&D services from start to finish. This gives your L&D staff time to focus on otherkey initiatives.

Best Recommendations

Prepare

Proactively identify challenges for successful learning provider consolidation effort

Perform

Define business performance standards and gauge subjective quality indicators

Progress

Account for sizeable influence of the learning provider management process to business