

Shanti Dhama – English Medium School

ShantiDhama School was founded in the year 1992, and is a registered institution of learning in Bangalore. Primarily an English medium school in bangalore, we have been imparting quality education to students since our inception. SPS meets the growing needs of a multicultural community and provides students the unique opportunity to mingle with students across the globe. An international school that fosters all-round development and wellness in children, we have made it our mission to shape your child's future. We cater to the ever growing demands of education and provide students with world-class facilities so as to nurture their talents and make them masters of their destiny.

