

CBSE School in Patiala

Physical activity has been shown to have a number of benefits for students, both in terms of their physical health and their academic performance. Below are some of the ways that being physically active can help students who attend CBSE schools:

