

How To Make The Smallest Living Room Look Spacious And Stunning?

With rising real estate costs, it has become difficult for people to afford a big house with spacious rooms. Other than affordability, people also find it challenging to maintain a bigger house due to the constraints of time and resources. This has created a demand for compact homes with small living rooms and bedrooms, and the builders are designing apartments and row houses keeping the same in mind.

If you are worried considering the small size of your living room, then you must not because it can be handled. There are strategic and smart ways using which you can make the best of even the smallest living room. Here are some insights on what to do to make the smallest living room look spacious and stunning and what kind of living room decoration items you can safely go for.

Color of the room

The color of the paint of the room can have a huge impact on its visual area. For a small room, the neutral shades work the best. At the same time, it is also recommended that the colors of your furniture and fixtures should also match the color of your walls. Hence, it is imperative to select the right shade that can not only virtually maximize the space but also enhances room aesthetics. In fact, you can keep the walls and floors in the white color which will brighten up space in the best manner.

Light it up

Adding lots of lights can do the trick. A well-lit room undeniably makes it look bigger. A few extra lights on the ceiling, long floor lamps, table lamps online, with even colored lighting does not only add to the luxury and warmth but also enlarges the room. If you can put the modish and luxurious chandelier in your modest living room, nothing like it. If you explore online, you will find many living room decoration items including the lights.

If there is already enough source of natural light in the room, then even better. Make sure not to overdo it and do not put the light where you do not need it.

Mirror wall

A mirrored wall is an illusion that works perfectly for a small room. Adding a mirror in the place of one of the walls of the room will create an illusion of the bigger room and successfully adds to the opulence as well. Explore metal wall art online in India to get more ideas.

Declutter

Declutter is suggested even to the people who have bigger homes. Eliminating the things you don't need has its own benefits such as you don't have to spend time and effort to maintain them, you will end up saving a lot of space which was otherwise cramped, the house looks clean and tidy, etc. Consider removing extra furniture, old and dilapidated decorative, torn cushions, etc. and instead of that buy new living room decoration items.

Use a rug

Adorn your living room with a large rug. It is one of the essential living room decoration items. It also makes the room look classy and stylish other than making the small room appear bigger. If you don't want to have carpeted flooring; you can put a rug under the coffee table. Rugs are also one of the best house decorative items for the bedroom.

Cozy seating

Keeping the room size in mind, do not invest in buying a larger sofa or big chair and table. It is important to take the written measurements of the room along with you when you go sofa shopping. It is also essential to keep the entire seating intimate where the entire furniture is kept close together.

Add tall furniture instead of broad ones

Adding a tall bookshelf, tall floor lamp, heightened table and chair, makes more sense than putting the fixtures that have a broad area that takes more floor space. You can put these in the empty corners of the room. Not only the living room, these tall accessories are also one of the perfect decorative items for the bedroom.

Bright interiors

One of the best tricks to divert all the attention from the small area of the room is to make the room look bright. If you decorate the room with bright and classy living room decoration items, your guests will be taken aback and get impressed with your sense of interior decoration rather than paying attention to the small space. You can check metal wall art online in India to get some good pieces of decor.

Multi-purpose room

If you are in the dearth of space, you can make it a more utility space other than just fitting living room decoration items. You can artistically make one of the corners of the room as a kid's study table or your husband's work from home setup.

Hanging chair

Even thought of adding Swing chairs? It enhances the look and design of the living room and is also considered as one of the nicest decorative items for bedrooms. It takes very less space as compared to the other traditional furniture as it does not require floor space.

Hang plants

Hanging plants bring positive vibes in the room and upscales the look of the room at the cost of no extra space, it is a stunning idea, isn't it? Likewise, you can hang many other living room decoration items.

Functional furniture

Foldable furniture like an ottoman or functional furniture that has a storage unit can make your small space full of utility. Some interior designers make built-in shelves in the living room which people use for storage, making a library, or fit on TV. It also makes a splendid option of decorative items for the bedroom along with superb functionality.

By now, you would have gathered a lot of ideas on how to decorate your small living room and how to use living room decoration items to make it the best. Other than using these tips to your advantage, you can also put on your thinking cap and come out with your imagination and creativity to uniquely design your space, making it a dream living room!

Source url- <https://www.dekorcompany.com/blogs/news/how-to-make-the-smallest-living-room-look-spacious-and-stunning>