

Wet mix plant exporter - Atlas Technologies

Atlas wet mix macadam plant is designed for road contractors who are every looking for a strong and reliable machine for their important construction projects. Each component is designed with precision and care to ensure that the customer enjoys the functioning and utilizes the plant to maximum. Available WMM Plants in capacities 100 tph, 160 tph and 200 tph the contractor has wide options to go as per his project requirement. Wet Mix Plant will help customers make a homogenous mix of base or sub base layers before laying of hot mix asphalt.

