

Medical services, Indian Health Center of Santa Clara Valley

We are a patient centered health home certified by the accreditations association for ambulatory health care the highest achievement or primary care, as it centers on a comprehensive review of the entire organization assuring that our patients receive high-quality care consistent with AAHC Standards for the ideal medical home model.