Santa Rosa Beach is a beautiful tropical beach. Located along Florida's Highway 30A, Santa Rosa Beach is a peaceful coastal town just waiting for a place to flourish and beautiful beaches to visit.

Explore the Outdoors: Start your visit at Topsail Hill Preserve State Park, home to over three miles of gorgeous white sand beaches. The park features incredible high dunes and a rare coastal dune lake. The pristine natural surroundings make for an awesome park to hike, fish, or birdwatch. If looking for a quieter option, consider Grayton Beach State Park, only a few minutes down the road! Grayton Beach State Park provides deep woods hiking and shaded trails leading to a lovely Western Lake. Utilize your time with kayak or paddleboard rentals.

Explore the Culture: Take a walk through Seaside, absolutely charming and characterized by pastel color cottages and the popular Airstream Row. For a different type of culture, stop in Eden Gardens State Park, where you can view the historic Wesley House, located in its own natural garden with ancient oaks wherever you turn to stroll.

Explore the Dining: Eat some fresh Gulf seafood at some great restaurants, many having a beachfront view. Relaxing island vibe ambiance provides live music and local (seasonal) festivals, would be an enhancement to any trip here.

Santa Rosa Beach, delineating both relaxed exploration and just good ole outdoor adventures, is a great place on Florida's Emerald Coast.
