

World's First MrBeast Burger in New Jersey | Biggest Indoor Snow Park| New year celebration in USA

What happens when you step into the first-ever MrBeast Burger restaurant at the American Dream Mall in New Jersey? In this video, I'll take you inside to explore the exclusive menu by one of the world's biggest YouTubers, MrBeast!

I'll try two of their signature burgers/sandwiches, share my honest review, and let you know how much it will cost you. But that's not all! After the food fest, I'll showcase the magical Christmas and New Year decorations in the mall that will give you major festive vibes.

Then, it's time for some adventure! Join me at North America's Largest Indoor Snow Park, where I'll show you all the snow activities you can enjoy — from skiing to snow tubing — and find out from the park manager what makes this place so unique and how much it will cost to explore Snow Park.
