

Are you having difficulties in English Elective CBSE class 12? Head to Extramarks for clear solutions of Class 12th English Elective. English is a subject which is taken for granted by a lot of students? "Viewed freely, the English language is the accretion and growth of every dialect, race, and range of time, and is both the free and compacted composition of all." But, students tend to lose the maximum number of marks in this subject as it is often taken lightly. Students lack the correct use of grammar and punctuation. Here, in India, English is a second language, so students often find difficulty in speaking and writing proper English. A new approach to methods and techniques of teaching English change from one place to the other and likewise objective of teaching English is bound to create a corresponding change in the approach to techniques and methods of teaching the subject. Naturally, there appears an imperative need for adding a new approach and a new technique for teaching English to the new educational set up of our secondary schools. In fact, we need, for this purpose, an orientation to the whole task of teaching and learning English. Recent experiments with regards to teaching English in Indian schools have recommended methods and techniques coupled with a new approach to the task. The old methods, techniques, and approaches, in this connection, have to be discarded. The teaching of English has to be made effective, useful and suitable to the needs of the modern times with the spreading of multinationals and call centers in India and also because of outsourcing.
