

Strike Force Maintenance Protection Will Make Your Clientele Feel Safe

As a business owner, you realize the importance of branding and first impressions in attracting new customers. Now that the economy is resuming its previous levels of activity, you'll need a strategy for reengaging with customers and generating new business.

Strike Force Maintenance provides more than simply germ and allergy protection for your company. It also allows you to share with the rest of the world what you're doing to provide your customers with clean, safe, and healthy experiences.

Building Client Trust and Delight

Building trust is more crucial now than ever before. According to a recent poll, 75% of consumers stated they would be more willing to buy in stores if firms provided a pleasant and comfortable environment while simultaneously giving ease when purchasing.

The pandemic has resulted in several changes in the way we shop. Now that consumers are returning to retail establishments, it is critical for companies to sustain customer relationships and reestablish trust and joy.

One of the greatest ways to accomplish this is to embrace what your customers have evolved into after COVID-19 hit us all. These new patterns include a desire to touch the product, try on items before purchasing, and, lastly, a better appreciation for color lines that had previously been lost owing to isolation.

Show Your Commitment to Health and Safety

Demonstrating that you have adopted the greatest degree of cleanliness for consumer safety is a new technique for creating confidence and satisfying customers. People will feel more comfortable visiting your businesses again if you demonstrate that you have made every effort to offer a clean, safe, and healthy atmosphere by cleaning your floors and toilets.

First, select a professional cleaning service provider

We provide a monthly cleaning analysis, which allows us to keep on top of what each customer wants in terms of cleanliness, whether it's carpet cleaning or floor polishing. Our supervisors are accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for any emergencies concerning the care of your property. We are here whenever you require us!

Deep Cleaning Services

It takes a lot of time and works to keep your floors looking their best, but with our staff's years of experience, we can help you maintain them simply. Our cleaners have expertise working with various varieties of flooring, from carpets to hardwood, and they are also taught how to utilize each floor type properly so that nothing gets harmed or soiled faster than it should. With a cutting-edge cleaning system, upholstery care, and stripping and waxing services as needed, both you and your clients will be happy with how clean everything appears.

We offer comprehensive floor maintenance services such as carpet cleaning, tile, and wood floor polishing (floor polish included), and vehicle scrubbing.

Professional Disinfecting

We are extremely serious about the safety of our personnel. Therefore, we offer you all the PPE kits necessary and then educate you on which surfaces need more attention. This allows them to devote the majority of their time to these high-risk locations (as determined by the CDC), optimizing production while limiting danger.

We want our clients to feel secure in the knowledge that we manage everything with accuracy, from the start of disinfection until the final delivery. Our hospital-grade disinfectant will effectively sanitize all surfaces, including workstations, countertops, door handles, handrails, protective glass, and light switches and phones.

Janitorial Supplies

We aim to ensure that our clients get the lowest prices on all of our cleaning products. We take pleasure in offering free delivery. We specialize in the distribution of commercial cleaning products such as paper towels, toilet tissue, hand sanitizers, vacuums, mops, disposable gloves, and so on. At a fair price, our quality facility supplies contain chemicals that will keep any premise looking clean.

Nobody beats what we have to offer; you receive exceptional service at a reasonable price, and we guarantee customer happiness with high-quality, time-tested items.

Remediation Services Or Restoration Cleaning Services

Because we are not linked to any other firm, when you pick Strike Force Maintenance for your remediation or restoration cleaning services, you may save 10% on franchise fees and avoid the potential of insurance rate rises. That translates to cheaper repair costs and your peace of mind knowing we are never far away at any given moment.

Always Maintain Cleanliness

Cleanliness is critical to the success of your business. Your customers will evaluate you by what they see when they walk into your place of business, and with a clean look, you can safeguard their health while also taking pleasure in the presence of your facility.

When presenting their business image, it is critical for the building operation manager of any institution to bear in mind that cleanliness is the most significant appeal element. By keeping all spaces clean and sanitized, you are demonstrating respect for people who come into contact with your business on a regular basis, both staff and customers.
