

Gwalior Fort

Gwalior Fort stands as a sentinel of history. Dominating the city's skyline, Gwalior Fort's roots trace back to the 8th century, evolving through different rulers, including the Tomars, Mughals, and Marathas. The fort's enduring appeal lies in its amalgamation of architectural styles, showcasing influences from various periods. One of the most iconic structures within Gwalior Fort is the Man Singh Palace, built during the rule of Raja Man Singh Tomar in the 15th century. For more, visit the link below:
