

Why You Should Go For Used Textbook Wholesaler?

When it comes to buying used books in wholesale quantities, the TextBook Agency leads the pack. Used books are one of our primary products, and we sell them in bulk to a wide range of clients on the domestic and foreign markets. It is profitable and cost-effective to buy second-hand books in bulk and then sell them one at a time at retail.

- Second-hand used textbook wholesaler get a lot of requests for preloved imported children's books that have been lightly used. Books from the US, the UK, and other Western countries are imported in quantity by us. Our prices are based on the quality of the product and are reasonable and fair. Bulk booking requires a purchase of at least 50 kg. As a result of having a huge number of books, these books are intermingled and cannot be selected based on their titles or authors. As we are used textbook wholesalers, the secondhand book resellers are by far our largest consumers. These people buy books by weight and sell them locally within their geographic area. Pre-loved book dealers are taking advantage of social media platforms like Instagram and Facebook to sell their wares.
- Many prestigious schools have purchased large quantities of our gently used school books. All kinds of publications, including textbooks, reference books, novels, and children's literature, are available in school books wholesale. The prices of a wide range of books are reasonable because they are offered in bulk. Purchasing old books from school books wholesale by weight is a common request from foreign nations. We have the ability to receive pallets and containers at the same time. Based on the volume of books, containers of 20 feet and 40 feet are used. Most of our customers hail from the Middle East and Africa.

- You, the client, are responsible for shipping costs. We are only a used textbooks supplier and are only responsible to supply them safely to you. We are teamed up with some of the most popular and cost-effective couriers in the business. Point-to-point travel is cheaper than home delivery in terms of cost (as low as Rs 10 per Kg within India).
- Local shipping means that home delivery may be more expensive. In order to save money on shipping, we suggest using point-to-point delivery in conjunction with your own in-house local shipping. We are the leading used textbooks supplier by weight to educational institutions, including schools, colleges, and coaching institutes.

During the year-end stock update for the library and internal audits, schools and individuals find us quite helpful. These novels set us apart from the rest. It is possible for educational institutions to obtain books in bulk at a lower cost by purchasing them by weight.
