

Happy Gudhi Padwa

Gudhi Padwa is a springtime celebration that denotes the customary new year for Marathi and Konkani Hindus. It is applauded in and near Maharashtra and Goa on the fundamental day of the Chaitra month to check the beginning of the New year as shown by the lunisolar Hindu timetable. Happy Gudhi Padwa.

The image is a digital greeting card for Gudhi Padwa. It features a light blue background with a white rectangular area containing the main text in Marathi. The text reads: 'गुढी पाडवा आणि नवीन वर्षाच्या हार्दिक शुभेच्छा...!' followed by the website 'www.firstdigiadd.com'. Below this, it says 'We wish you a safe, Prosperous and Innovative future. Let's go Digital on this New Year stay safe, stay Happy'. The card is decorated with a large green 'Gudhi' (a traditional string) that is being pulled up to a blue Wi-Fi symbol. Various social media icons (Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, Twitter, YouTube) are scattered around the string. In the bottom right, there are two cartoon characters, a woman in a purple sari and a man in a yellow kurta and red dhoti, both wearing face masks and standing with their hands in a prayer position. A small white bottle of hand sanitizer is placed on a tray in front of them. The 'FirstDigiAdd' logo is in the top right corner, and a row of social media icons (Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, Twitter, YouTube) is at the bottom right. A small red and yellow decorative element is at the bottom center.
