What is a Professional license in Dubai?

When starting a business in Dubai, choosing the right license is crucial. Anyone looking to utilise their knowledge and expertise to enter the city's thriving service industry must obtain a professional license in Dubai. The license covers consultancy, educational services, and more. Delving into the specifics can reveal why this license suits certain enterprises perfectly. Read this article for further details.