The history and concept of Freedom in Islam,

ALLAH gave Hazrat Adam (the first Prophet) liberty of free choice between right and wrong, Allah says in the Quran that,

"Then He showed him what is wrong for Him and what is right for Him"

This verse reflects that freedom is equally a shared goal of human creature, where with none violates Freedom of other people. The second basic objective of right to free expression is human honour and dignity. As the famous scholar of Malaysia Muhammad Hashim Kamali states in his Book,

"Freedom of expression also compliments human dignity, for the essence of character and personality is reflected in a person's opinion and judgment."

As written in the Holy Quran,

"And we have certainly honoured the children of Adam"

Allah Almighty honours human beings many times in the Holy Quran,

As Allah says in another place,

"We have certainly created man in the best of stature"

According to Syed Maududi,

"Islam gives the right of freedom of thought and expression to all citizens of the Islamic state on the condition that it should be used for the propagation of virtue and truth and not for spreading evil and wickedness so, "Islam* Freedom" evaluates that Islam is the religion of love and peace.
