CHEAP LIM0 SERVICE

There are a thousand ways you can say thanks to your guests for showing up at your wedding, thank you cards being the most prominent of them. What if we tell you there is more that you could do than just a signed card to send them via post? After all, they made themselves available to come wish you and your husband best wishes, didn't they? Such a gesture in such busy times deserves something more. Yes, we are talking about wedding favors that are slightly unique such as arranging for a Pittsburgh Limo Service. Before you read along, if you like the idea, contact Cheap Limo Service Near Me Services right away!

1. Dedicate a toast to them

That is the least you can do. Toasts provide for a perfect opportunity to show all your loved ones what they truly mean to you. Don't forget to mention those guests especially who came from around the world or interstate to attend your big day. The right words, when uttered straight from the heart are precious than any tangible favor you might hand them with.

2. Pack them a Personalized Favor to take home

But then again, you can't deny the charm of goodies that they can take home with them. The goodie bag can hold anything from a sample of your favorite scent, cake mix or a bunch of macaroons in a mason jar with ribbons.
