Not only in Chandigarh, but the Academy also provides the best IAS coaching in Ranchi.

Introduction to the IAS Exam – Divine IAS Academy

- The IAS or Indian Administrative Services exam is conducted by UPSC each year for the selection of students for serving at administrative posts. IAS is one of the three tests conducted by the UPSC. The other two are Indian forest services (IFS) and Indian police services (IPS).

The IAS exam is conducted in three stages.

- The first stage is the preliminary or qualifying stage. The marks scored at this stage decide your eligibility to appear in the mains.
- The mains has nine different papers based on different subjects.
- The mains level has both qualifying and merit-based papers.
- Some papers are objective-based while others are subjective.
- The subjective based papers might be short or essay based.
- After qualifying the mains level, the aspirant is eligible to appear for the interview. Post clearing the same an aspirant becomes eligible to secure a place to render his/her services in Indian Administration as per his designation.

It is important to mention here that the candidates for IAS posts are appointed by the President.
