

The ladies clutch: A universal truth to all traditional outfits

Clutches are a necessary accessory. This has been proven by the fact that these are carried by all women-from a college going girl to a celebrity. This article will describe the different pairs of clutches you would want to have and how to pay these. These are easily available to buy ladies bags online and offline throughout the world.

Formal wear: Gowns & Sarees in black

The best way to pair your formal gowns and sarees is by pairing them with a black clutch. Black is a colour that is formal, sleek and looks classy no matter how important your meeting is. Black does not attract too much of the crowd and looks best with black formal gowns or black sarees. However, the black colour clutch looks good with other formal colour sarees or gowns. It is a universal colour.

Partywear: Evening dress in gold or silver

The best wear to pair your shimmery golden work saree in gold or silver is by pairing it with a golden clutch. It draws attention for sure. That is the sole purpose of it. A golden clutch will look good with women wearing gold, silver and beige evening dresses.

Casual wear: casual clutch purse

It is easy to handle and taking care of it is easy. And apart from monochrome colours, these are also available in a multitude of colour palettes. This adds a funky vibe too. So apart from skirts, and casual outfits, these go well with trousers and also with dresses when you are going for attending luncheons, dinner dates, coffee dates or casual outings.

Formal & Casualwear: Multipurpose clutch

It is not possible to buy ladies' bags for every outfit. It is very expensive to do so. However, what if we say that a single clutch can do all the deeds whether you are at a park or going for a formal brunch with business delegates. The answer is silver clutch. It can easily glam up the look of your outfit, whether you are wearing a plain white salwar suit or a yellow formal suit. This silver clutch is special and can go on with formal and casual outfits of any colour. If you want to stay abreast of cost, then this type is your best bet.

Customized wear: Custom-sized clutch

Customization is no more a style but a fashion trend that is soon gripping fashion-conscious women across the world. This is a trend that celebrities are very fond of. And this trend is worth acknowledging and accepting. But if you are trying a shimmery outfit like- a shimmery gown, or glittery saree, it is best to customize your ladies' bag with the same cloth your outfit is made of. This way, you will be able to match your dress with the custom-sized clutch that you made.

Funky outfits: funky clutch

The best way to look different is with a simple accessory by engraving your spouse's name or lover's name or maybe a beautiful thought. This style can be accorded as the top style and is worth experimenting too if you are too bored of styles available online and offline stores. Some of the fabulous stores offer customizing ladies' bags with your favourite engraved name or thought.
