Grey Kitchen can be an Interesting Space Too

KITCHEN

“A kitchen so gloomy and dark and dull” do you also think this is what a grey kitchen looks like, like many others? Colorless and uninteresting? Let’s bust this myth about grey kitchens today, right here right now!!

There will probably never be a halt to white kitchens, but if you're somebody that keeps up with the trend, you might have noticed the gradual shift of love towards the grey. People are now paying attention to the versatility this color brings to the table. It is being used to fit everything from traditional kitchen schemes to modern kitchen themes. What personality are you looking to invite into your kitchen space? Strong? Simple? Dynamic? Mild? Quiet? Warm? Grey will not disappoint you.

• Light Grey Worktop for Compact Spaces

Go for a light grey theme if you are planning to make your constricted space look spacious without tearing down the walls. Add interesting hints here and there into your space, like peculiar chopping boards, earthenwares, kitchen rails above the sinks, and hanging wine and glass holders for space savers. Try to pick up the same color for the accents as doing so will make your small, light grey kitchen look organized and not too messy.

- Sweet Treat with Pastels

You can break the conventional grey-with-white combination by combining your grey cabinets kitchen with soft-toned pastel colors for your other kitchen units like shelves, chairs, drawers, lights, etc. Pastel pink pendant lights and the same color for flatwares and faucets will give a playful touch whereas pastel blue will make your space look more soothing and comforting. What colors go with grey kitchen units? Anything you pick.

- Grey Tile Flooring

One of the most decorative household fixtures that will not take up any extra space is your flooring, and with the right choices you will make your kitchen stand out. Grey tile flooring will make your space look chic, elegant and classy. There are a wide range of material options for tile flooring. Some popular ones are mentioned below:

- Grey Limestone Tiles Floor

Limestone is a good choice for grey kitchen flooring because lime stone is highly durable and very low maintenance. An ideal choice would be to pick a matte or honed finish for your grey limestone tile floor to avoid slippery accidents when wet.

- Grey Marble for Flooring

Choosing marbles for flooring means you are literally incorporating luxury and style into your space. They not only increase the value of your home with their price tags but also with their unparalleled beauty. Besides these, it is a wise idea to go with marbles for flooring, especially in hot and humid places. The marble surface will remain cool at all times, which will decrease Your dependence on coolers and ACs. Start choosing your grey marble already for your grey kitchen project.

- Aesthetic Touch

Give your grey space an exciting introduction with classic kitchen lighting. Incorporate LED lights into your grey worktop, with adjustable brightness to suit the mood of the moment. This will make your kitchen look modern and contemporary. There are numerous ways to add LED lighting in a kitchen:

- Use LED lighting around the base of your grey worktop.
- Use illuminated splashback.
- Use LED lighting around the base of your grey kitchen islands with a breakfast bar.

Besides working aesthetically, using LED lighting has several benefits like creating a relaxing atmosphere, making the area suitable for evening occasions and dinner parties, and sufficient lighting for cooking and prep.

- Create Focal Points

Add an interesting feature to your grey kitchen with colours or designs that catch everybody's attention. You can have a breakfast bar or splashback in the kitchen that stands out with popping colours like yellow or red. A galaxy table is also being seen in kitchens of homeowners these days, being used as a breakfast table. Galaxy tables are created mostly by enthusiastic homeowners who are good with their DIY skills. Others achieve this galaxy table dream with tablecloths that look like it.

- Traditional Kitchen Designs

If you're concerned about your grey space getting out of trend too soon and swiftly becoming outdated, stick to classic kitchen ideas and trends. A modern farmhouse design will stay fashionable for decades. If you're building a new kitchen, go with traditional Shaker-style cabinets made of natural wood. They are ageless, attractive, and add a country vibe to your space.

- Grey Quartz Worktops for Modern Kitchens

One way to successfully design a contemporary grey kitchen is by choosing grey quartz worktops in polished finishing. Shimmery quartz worktops like grey galaxy quartz and Grigio Sparkle have quartz crystals in them that make the perfect choice for contemporary kitchens. To make it even better, give all your other accents like cabinets and drawers, a glossy, sleek finish. Choose bar stools that have a glossy finish too.
