How to Buy Puerh Tea Online?

The main place of production of Puerh tea is Yunnan Province. It has only become popular in various regions in the past 10 years. Because the health department has researched the functions of reducing blood fat, slimming and anti-cancer, especially the longer the preservation of Puerh tea, the more effective it is, so the price The changes are also quite dramatic.

First is to identify new and old Puerh tea?

Due to the sustainable fermentation of Puerh tea, the more mature and more fragrant, the price is of course more expensive. The new Puerh tea refers to the freshly made Puerh tea, which is greener in color and has a strong taste. The old Puerh tea refers to the Puerh tea that has been aged for a long time. After a long period of oxidation, the appearance of the tea leaves is Jujube red, white needle also turned yellow-brown.

Second. Smell the aroma of tea.

Puer tea, which is usually poorly preserved, produces a musty smell, and some merchants add floral fragrances such as chrysanthemum to cover up the smell. Therefore, if you see chrysanthemum in Puerh tea, or smell floral, it means that the quality of the tea is not pure.

Third. Identify the color of tea soup.

Ask the clerk or boss to try and observe the color of the tea soup. As the aged Puerh continues to produce alcohol after many years, the tea soup is darker in color, but it is not black as lacquer; and the tea soup of new Puerh tea is lighter in color. But this can only be used as a reference, because even the new tea will be very deep, the best way is to try it.

Forth is to try the tea soup.

Trying to drink is the most important part of buying tea, because a cup of tea is good or bad, you can fully know from the test that a good cup of Puerh tea will not have a musty smell, nor will it be bitter water. The newly-made Puerh has white needle, which has not been aged, so it will have a bitter taste; after the aging of Puerh tea, White needle turns into golden needle, the rhythm is mild and not irritating, so it is more mellow.
