

Which Are The Best BBA Colleges In Ghaziabad With Low Fees?

The world of business has taken over conventional career paths now. It's not surprising that more and more students are opting for a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree. While a degree in BBA is interesting and helps you set your foundation in the business world, it is not cheap. There are a lot of top BBA colleges in Ghaziabad to pursue the degree, but not all of them are affordable.

If you are one of those students who want a great college but with low fees, we have got you back. Here's a list of the best BBA colleges in Ghaziabad with low fees but top-notch education facilities.

1. HLM Management College

HLM Management College is a well-respected institution in the field of management studies. They offer a BBA program that focuses on developing managerial and leadership skills in students. The college has a modern campus, a well-stocked library, and a team of experienced faculty members. The faculty members use innovative teaching methods to ensure that students understand business administration comprehensively. The fee structure for the BBA program is around INR 55,000 per annum.

2. Institute of Management Studies

IMS Ghaziabad is a well-established college in the field of management studies. They offer a BBA program to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of business and management. They have a team of experienced faculty members and a well-equipped campus that provides a holistic learning experience. The college has a fee structure of around INR 60,000 per annum.

3. Accurate Institute of Management And Technology

AIMT is one of the leading colleges in Ghaziabad that offers a BBA program. They provide students with a comprehensive understanding of business administration, marketing, and finance. The college has a modern campus, a well-equipped library, and a team of experienced faculty members. The fee structure for the BBA program is around INR 80,000 per annum.

4. KCC Institute of Technology And Management

KCCITM is known for providing quality education in the field of management studies. They offer a BBA program designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of business administration. The college has a modern campus, a well-stocked library, and a team of experienced faculty members. The fee structure for the BBA program is around INR 90,000 per annum.

5. SRI Ram Institute Of Management

SRIM is a well-established college that offers a BBA program. They provide students with a comprehensive understanding of business administration, marketing, and finance. The college has a modern campus, a well-equipped library, and a team of experienced faculty members. The fee structure for the BBA program is around INR 75,000 per annum.

Wrapping Up

These are some of the top BBA colleges in Ghaziabad with low fees. These colleges provide students with quality education, a well-equipped campus, and experienced faculty members. The fee structure for the BBA program varies between INR 55,000 and INR 1,40,000 per annum, making it accessible to students with different financial backgrounds.

The best option from the list is the HLM Management College. They provide the best education and facilities at the most affordable cost. Before finalizing a college, research its reputation, facilities, and fee structure to ensure that it aligns with your career goals and financial budget.

Original Source URL - <https://hlmgroup.blogspot.com/2023/02/which-are-best-bba-colleges-in.html>