

Kolad is rightly called the adventure capital of Maharashtra. The biggest attraction in Kolad is the 'Kundalika River Rafting' or 'White Water Rafting in Kolad'. Rafting activity here is 12 km long, conducted between two dams. It starts from the lower side of Bhira Dam and ends at Dolwahal Dam. River Rafting in Kolad is highly safe since there is no unfamiliar changes in the levels of water in this river. It's year-round destination, as river rafting happens 365 days.

Our campsite, Camp River Rush is located right at the banks for River Kundalika. If you're looking for the perfect place to stay in Kolad, it's this campsite. Tents are pitched amidst greenery, next to the Kundalika river. The campsite has constructed western washrooms, and has all basic amenities of a camp. Our budget friendly camping package includes tent stay, river rafting experience, evening snacks, dinner and morning breakfast.
