We are highly experienced corporate and business attorneys in Houston trained at top law firms and in-house legal departments. We use our years of experience to provide small and mid-market companies the caliber of legal services expected of an in-house or large law firm lawyer at a much more affordable price. We provide services for mergers & acquisitions, employment matters, real estate, intellectual property (IP), compliance/corporate governance, and contracts or negotiating deals. We are also a leader in General Counsel Services which is a legal services program designed for growing businesses. General Counsel Services provides ongoing legal services at a fraction of the price for traditional legal services and attorney fees.

Phillips Kaiser PLLC is dedicated to bringing the expertise, strategic thinking, business acumen, and timeliness of the in-house function in large companies to smaller ones. We accomplish this by deploying service-oriented attorneys with senior-level in-house counsel experience at much lower costs than traditional law firms to allow smaller companies to rely on our services in lieu of hiring a full-time general counsel, or to supplement in-house legal departments with very seasoned and efficient resources.

We pioneered the concept of General Counsel Services nearly 20 years ago because we love innovation. We believe even smaller and mid-market companies deserve the highest quality legal services. Our experience working in large law firms and in-house legal departments provided a broad skillset and also taught us we can provide the same level of legal services on a contract basis at a greatly reduced cost compared to the traditional model.
