

Discovering Dwarka

India's ancient city of Dwarka is situated by the sea on Gujarat's western coast. It is sometimes referred to as Devbhoomi. One of the four sacred sites in Hinduism that receives a lot of visitors is Dwarka.

A well-known city in Gujarat, in west-central India, is Dwarka. It is situated on the Okhamandal Coast's western shore, a portion of the Kathiawar Coast. After leaving Mathura, Lord Krishna founded Dwarka, Jigat, or Jagat. It was the fabled capital of him. One of the seven major Hindu pilgrimage sites is Dwarka.

Read more

