

What To Do If You Were Hit By A Car As A Bicyclist?

What To Do If You Were Hit By A Car As A Bicyclist?

Although motorists are at fault in the vast majority of car accidents involving bicyclists, many cyclists in Los Angeles fail to prove the motorist's fault by having insufficient evidence. To obtain economic and non-economic compensation on your behalf, skilled lawyers at JML Law will:

- 1 Order a police report
- 2 Assign a qualified physician to document your injuries and oversee your treatment
- 3 Collect recorded statements from witnesses
- 4 Take photos at the scene of the motor vehicle collision
- 5 Obtain driving records from the other driver(s)
- 6 Order a report from experts in the fields of accident reconstruction and engineering to prove the driver's liability
- 7 Review your medical records and assess the full value of your injuries and damages

These and many other steps were taken by a bicycle accident attorney in Los Angeles will help you prove the other party's fault and seek maximum compensation for a bicycle accident.

CALIFORNIA
EMPLOYMENT &
PERSONAL INJURY

Although motorists are at fault in the vast majority of car accidents involving bicyclists, many cyclists in Los Angeles fail to prove the motorist's fault by having insufficient evidence. To obtain economic and non-economic compensation on your behalf, skilled lawyers at JML Law will:

1. Order a police report
2. Assign a qualified physician to document your injuries and oversee your treatment
3. Collect recorded statements from witnesses and more

These and many other steps were taken by the best bicycle accident lawyer in Los Angeles will help you prove the other party's fault and seek maximum compensation for a bicycle accident.