

Shivneri Fort

Situated approximately 90 kilometers from Pune, Shivneri Fort holds significance as the birthplace of the Maratha warrior king, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Constructed during the 16th century, the fort served as a pivotal military stronghold for the Marathas. Shivneri played a crucial role in shaping the early years of Shivaji's life and political career, laying the foundation for the Maratha Empire. For more, visit the page below:
