

How To Choose A Good Ashtray

A fine fellow by the title of Kurt Van Keppel noticed in 1994 that there were very few well-conceived alternatives to eliminating cigar methods along with your teeth. Cheap cigar cutters were loose, dull and boring to consider, and high priced cigar cutters were -- effectively, loose, boring and boring to appear at. So Kurt got along with his friend Scott to make a cigar cutter that was tough, long-lasting, can woo a romantic date using its good looks, and was sharp enough to impress the Spanish Inquisition's guillotine squad. The result was the Xikar cigar cutter, today a industry head in the industry.

It's a fact: the majority of us do not desire a hutch-style humidor the size of a clothing that features a gate way to Narnia.
