

The Kashmir Files Reviewed By PM Narendra Modi

The Kashmir Files

During his latest BJP Parliamentary meeting, PM Modi lauded The Kashmir Files and urged everyone to watch it

Vivek Agnihotri's most recent delivery The Kashmir Files has made all in all a mix in the biological system. The film which depends on the genuine departure of Kashmiri Pandits has been earning rave audits from Kashmiri Pandits and pundits also. After his new gathering with the creators of The Kashmir Files-chief Vivek Agnihotri, spouse Pallavi Joshi and maker Abhishek Agarwal, Prime Minister of India Narendra Modi has now showered acclaims on the film.

During his most recent BJP Parliamentary gathering, PM Modi commended the film and asked everybody to watch it.

State leader Narendra Modi shot the critics of The Kashmir Files and said that the fact of the matter was stifled for a really long time and presently somebody has shown the boldness to show it. A video of Prime Minister Narendra Modi commending the film during the BJP Parliamentary gathering has surfaced and it has turned into a web sensation and how.

In the video, he's heard saying, "As you are seeing, The Kashmir Files has turned into a hotly debated issue. The whole posse, which raises banner of opportunity of articulation, is going nuts today and can't process reality. In spite of praising the film for showing truth and its craft, the whole biological system is attempting to ruin the film. Someone has shown the fortitude to show the truth."

"The manner in which these individuals are contradicting this film for the beyond 5-6 days, my perspective isn't film, my point is truth. They are stunned that the fact of the matter was smothered throughout recent years, somebody is attempting to show it. So they are attempting to conceal it however much they can," PM Narendra Modi added.

In the mean time, The Kashmir Files is doing marvels in the cinema world. The film's all out film industry assortments of 4 days have crossed Rs 47 cr and will before long cross the 50 crore mark. The Vivek Agnihotri executive featuring Anupam Kher, Bhasha Sumbli, Mithun Chakraborty and others, is nearly turning into a blockbuster. Stay tuned to Koimoi.