

Curriculum Philosophy

Is that education should promote thinking and creativity rather than attaining bookish knowledge. We believe that young generation will do wonders if education motivates them explore their mind instead of relying on memory. Our learning is primarily based on the inquisitive attitude of the children. We are nurturing the curiosity and creativity of students encouraging them to take intellectual risks and developing critical and independent thinking with emphasis on play-way methods. top schools in whitefield

