

[Solved] How To Fix Error Code 30174-8(1392)

The above error code 30174-8\(1392\) primarily appears when you try to open an office program on Windows 10 computers that are previously running on Windows 8.1. It has been observed that this error needs to repair or reinstall and you can read the below information for more knowledge.

Office programs will not open at all and give you an error code 1058-4. Even you get a different error code 30174-8(1392) when you try to repair or uninstall. This is found on Windows 8.1 upgraded to 10 machines recently.

First, do a disc clean-up so that we can remove old-Microsoft office installation traces from your computer.

It is also recommended to run the windows updates regularly, make sure it is set to automatic updates. Otherwise manually install the updates from your end. The windows 10 updates will download the latest drivers required for your computer hardware irrespective of brand or manufacturer.

We provide support for Microsoft products like Windows and Office and Outlook, we can also set up free tools provided and included with Microsoft Windows and can train you on how to use them to maintain the health of your computer.