Shashank Khaitan's next with Vicky Kaushal which was tentatively titled Mr. Lele gets a new title. Backed by Karan Johar's Dharma Productions – The film is called Govinda Mera Naam and the makers revealed character posters of Vicky Kaushal and the leading ladies – Kiara Advani and Bhumi Pednekar.

The leading ladies Bhumi and Kiara have interesting character posters. Bhumi pednekar plays Mrs. Waghmare aka Govinda ki Hotty wife and looks pretty in a printed saree. While Kiara Advani plays the third person between Mr and Mrs and calls herself Govinda ki naughty girlfriend. The actress looks stunning in a yellow saree and the trio promises some crazy fun.

Meanwhile, Vicky Kaushal is in the news for his December wedding with Katrina Kaif. The Sardar Udham actor is so busy with his work these days that he's not even going to take a honeymoon break post his marriage.

Actress Bhumi Pednekar has talked about her love for wearing sarees in films. She credits it to her journey in Hindi cinema.

Bhumi said: “I find it a big compliment if people find me pretty in a saree! I love wearing one whenever I get a chance and thankfully I have been able to wear quite a few of them in my movies! I’m glad people are loving another saree avatar of mine.”

Bhumi Pednekar added: “My look in ‘Pati Patni Aur Woh’ (PPAW) got a lot of love, I am sure this one will too. Both the characters are extremely different and that’s exciting.”
