

Explaining Symptoms and Diagnoses of Eczema

Eczema is a series of skin disorders that are the prime reason for inflammation and irritation. Your skin is irritated, red, dry, cracked, or flaky if you have eczema. Eczema cannot be detected by any test; you need to visit a skin specialist in Bopal, and they will most likely diagnose it by examining your skin.

Source: Understand Symptoms and Diagnoses of Eczema